This work, prepared some years ago, was received with great favor by the public, attaining a larger sale, it is believed, than any work of the kind ever published. Lapse of time has brought material chances in the statutes of many of the States; the war has not only altered the social condition of some of them, but has introduced the internal revenue system, national banks, new post office and customs house regulations, amendments to the constitution of the United States, emancipation of slaves, General Bankrupt law, &c.

The subject of Pensions, Bounties and War Claims has also assumed a new and greatly increased importance.

house regulations, amendments to the constitution of the United States, emancipation of slaves, General Bankrapi law, &c.

The subject of Pensions, Bounties and War Claims has also assumed a new and greatly increased importance.

These numerous changes have led the publisher to make a new and thoroughly revised edition, reproducing the whole work, with special reference to making the work complete and reliable without regard to expense. So critical and increasing the sheen this revision that the most implies rejament on the placed upon the work, as authority on all the subjects of which it treats.

Over two hundred and fifty pages new matter have been added to meet the requirements of the times.

The utility of such a work no one will now question. The sale of hundreds of thousands of copies of the former editions and the constant demand for it have settled that point. The professional man, the farmer, the mechanic, the minnafacturer, the soldier, the sallor, each, the work of the former editions and the constant demand for it have settled that point for a logal form, which we reliable wetting that may be required in a logal form, which will avoid the will called for in the various and that will enable every man or woman to be his or have any property, or who have any rights or procession of the community, male or female, who have, or expecting a which require protection, who will not be greatly tenedied and advantaged by the possession of the sound time, save them litigation and lawyers fees, and give them information that nobody can afford to be window.
